

SUPPORTERS CODE OF CONDUCT AND BEST PRACTICE

- Be on your best behaviour and lead by example. Do not use foul language or harass match officials, players, team mentors or visiting supporters.
- Applaud good play by the opposing team and well as our own.
- Show respect for opposing teams. It should be remembered that without them there would not be any game in the first place.
- At every opportunity condemn the use of violence, in any form.
- Verbal abuse of players and match officials, cannot, and will not be tolerated.
- Show respect for the referee and match officials. Remember that whilst he/she might not always get all decisions right, they are an essential and necessary part of the enjoyment and playing of the game. Abuse of them will not be tolerated.
- Always encourage players to play within the rules of the game. Never encourage violent or unacceptable conduct by any player.
- The proper support and behaviour of supporters/spectators are an essential part of the enjoyment of the games. Their presence improves the atmosphere for players and supporters/spectators alike.
- Be proud of Clonduff GAC and the game of Gaelic Football.
- Breaches of the Codes of Conduct should be dealt with by management as far as possible. Where a resolution cannot be met, the issue should be brought to the club Chairman and if the issue can still not be dealt with, the disciplinary committee will intervene.
- Never use social media to make negative comments about Clonduff GAA Club

Declaration

I understand and agree to abide by this Code of Conduct. I understand that failure to abide by this Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action by the club committee.
